

You are making a difference for the people of Haiti

The Primate's World Relief and Development Fund (PWRDF) has sent $50,000 for ACT's Rapid Response Program, an ecumenical effort that is made up of churches and humanitarian organizations.

ACT Alliance members are getting food, temporary shelter, water purifying materials and expertise to the Haitian capital. One of the largest alliances working on relief in Haiti, ACT Alliance has four members working in-country and is being supplemented by relief from others.

As of noon Tuesday, January 19 more than $188,000 in donations had been received at the PWRDF office. Sunday Schools are collecting pennies, gospel singers are donating proceeds from CD sales, prayer services are being held with the offerings directed to PWRDF. More services and fundraising events are in the planning stages. Anglicans are praying, acting and giving to support the people of Haiti. Thank you!!

PWRDF is eligible for CIDA matching funds collected between January 12 and February 12, 2010.
