

Diocese of Saskatchewan
Cycle of Prayer
2022

Please pray weekly for

Michael and Adam Our Bishops

At Prayer Book Holy Communion (page 75) only “Michael and Adam our Bishops” should be mentioned within the Prayer of Intercession. Biddings at Holy Communion, Morning and Evening Prayer as well as BAS Litanies may include the following as well as the weekly Cycle of Prayer. Prayers and Biddings should not include formal titles or surnames. While bulletins may include details of jurisdiction and denomination, these should be avoided in prayers.

Please also pray regularly for

Justin, Archbishop of Canterbury,

Linda, our Primate,

Greg and Mark our Archbishops

Mark, our National Indigenous Archbishop,

Helen, Bishop of Qu'Appelle & Chris, Bishop of Saskatoon

as well as

Sid, Bishop of the Saskatchewan Synod
(Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada)

Stephen Roman Catholic Bishop of Prince Albert,

Bryan, Bishop of the Ukrainian Catholic Eperchy of Saskatoon and

Murray, Archbishop of Kewatin-LePas.

The Sunday Propers provided here include the Collect, Epistle and Gospel (as well as an optional Old Testament Reading) to be used at Holy Communion. Psalms for use between the readings may be found in the tables starting on page L. provided here. If a Psalm is used between readings it should not conclude with the Glory be to the Father... nor a Psalm Prayer. The Psalm may include alleluias (twice after the second last verse and once after the last verse) except in Lent or may be read with an appropriate verse selected as a repeated refrain. At Communion smaller Psalm selections should be printed in the bulletin. These readings may also be used at Morning and Evening Prayer or the prescribed Sunday Psalms (BCP p. Lff.) and (Lessons B.C.P. p. XVI ff), also provided here, should be used.

Almighty God, give us grace to cast away the works of darkness and to put on the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in which your Son Jesus Christ came to us in great humility so that on the last day, when he will come again in his glorious majesty to judge the living and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal, through him who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Lighting of Advent Wreath Advent IV

(Traditional)

V. Rejoice in the Lord always

R. And again I say, Rejoice.

The lighting of the fourth candle.

V. There standeth one among you,

R. Whom ye know not.

V. Behold the Lamb of God,

R. Which taketh away the sin of the world

Almighty God, give us grace that we may cast away the works of darkness, and put upon us the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in which thy Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious Majesty, to judge both the quick and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal; through him who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, now and ever. Amen.

(Contemporary)

V. Rejoice in the Lord always

R. Again I will say, Rejoice.

The lighting of the fourth candle.

V. Among you stands one

R. Whom you do not know.

V. Behold the Lamb of God,

V. Whatever was written in former days

R. Was written for our instruction

V. That by steadfastness and by the encouragement of the scriptures

R. We might have hope.

The lighting of the second candle

V. Heaven and earth will pass away:

R. But my words will not pass away.

Almighty God, give us grace to cast away the works of darkness and to put on the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in which your Son Jesus Christ came to us in great humility so that on the last day, when he will come again in his glorious majesty to judge the living and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal, through him who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Lighting of Advent Wreath Advent III

(Traditional)

V. Let a man so account of us

R. As of the ministers of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God.

The lighting of the third candle

V. Behold, I send my messenger before thy face,

R. Which shall prepare thy way before thee.

Almighty God, give us grace that we may cast away the works of darkness, and put upon us the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in which thy Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious Majesty, to judge both the quick and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal; through him who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, now and ever. The Advent Wreath

The following may be used for the lighting of the Advent Wreath. You may want to light the new candle for that Sunday at the beginning of the service (before after or in the middle of the opening Hymn), during a Children's time or before the Sermon. There are two forms provided appropriate for the BCP and the BAS. These forms allow you to draw out some of the memorable verses of the Scriptures for the day. Some may want to bless the Wreath on the first Sunday. You might use the Christmas Antihems (BCP page 104) and the second Collect for Christmas (BCP page 107) for the lighting of the White/Christ Candle on Christmas Eve or Day. The verses are short and easy enough to be read by children. The Advent Collect is to be used every Sunday in addition to the Collect for the Day and fits well here.

Lighting of Advent Wreath Advent I

(Traditional)

V. The night is far spent,

R. The day is at hand;

V. Let us therefore cast off the works of darkness

R. And let us put on the armour of light

The lighting of the first candle

V. Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord;

R. Hosanna in the Highest!

STIR up, we beseech thee, O Lord, the wills of thy faithful people; that they, plenteously bringing forth the fruit of good works, may of thee be plenteously rewarded; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(Contemporary)

V. The night is far gone,

R. The day is at hand;

V. Let us then cast off the works of darkness

R. And put on the armor of light

The lighting of the first candle

V. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord;

R. Hosanna in the Highest!

Stir up, O Lord, the wills of your faithful people, that richly bearing the fruit of good works, we may by you be richly rewarded; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Lighting of Advent Wreath Advent II

(Traditional)

V. Whatsoever things were written aforetime

R. Were written for our learning

V. That we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures

R. Might have hope.
